Whether singing around a campfire or in your living room, we hope you find our songbooks a resource to spread joy and build community through song. These are just a few of our favorite campfire songs from Rise Up Singing and Rise Again. There are soooo many more! Add your own favorites to the other side of this card and slip it in the back of your songbook for the next time you sing with others. Check out our website for more topical song lists and singing resources.
