

A part of
Refugee Awareness Week
A WEEK OF ADVOCACY AND SUPPORT

Hope & Strength: Community Concert to Benefit Refugees

THURSDAY
APRIL 5
6:00 P.M.

Woodman Center
Proceeds to benefit AHOPE

“Singing in community gives us resilience and hope. It can give us courage to continue when times are hard, inspiration when we least expect it.”

— Annie Patterson

Tickets at riseupandsing.org/singing/concerts or at the door.

Suggested donation:

No one will be turned away for lack of funds.

$25 for supporters

$15 for adults, $10 college students

17 and under free; all refugees free

Sponsored by Moses Brown School and Providence Friends Meeting.

Lift your voice in song for refugees in Rhode Island!

This all-ages sing-along concert unites families from Moses Brown and the greater Providence community to celebrate our shared commitment to justice, rights, and dignity for all. Led by Annie Patterson & Peter Blood, creators of the Rise Up Singing and Rise Again songbooks, proceeds from the concert will support AHOPE, a volunteer-led organization that helps settle new refugees in Rhode Island.

Copies of Rise Again will be available to borrow or buy during this concert. If you have a copy of Rise Up Singing or Rise Again, bring it with you!

First set begins at 6 p.m. Second set will start at 7:30 p.m.

Moses Brown School
250 Lloyd Avenue, Providence, RI 02906

mosesbrown.org